Scott,

I'd like approval to purchase a small disposable Styrofoam cooler to keep water cool throughout the day while I'm here and out in the field?

Thanks again everyone for stepping up for what I am sure will be an experience.

I wanted to get you a little more guidance ASAP since I don't know when your flights are. This is draft guidance, so some things may be tweaked tomorrow; but it should be pretty close and better than no info right now.

There are no stupid questions, so let Brian or I know if we can get you help or answers.
